

Violence Poll

Violence Surges during the Pandemic

2,300 polled in hospitals/LTC represented by OCHU-CUPE

The union will hold media conferences across Ontario in July demanding major changes from employers and government to address the violence that staff are facing daily. The poll is on the OCHU website: www.ochu.on.ca

36%

Sexually assaulted since the pandemic began at work.

71%

Of racialized staff attacked because of race

63%

Of all staff physically assaulted at work

62%

Exhausted
Depressed
Anxious

18%

Increased use of knives/guns against staff

48%

See no changes to protect them